Illinois Senator Found Dead In His Hotel Room

Senate Adjourns Out of Respect to Memory of Colleague

OFFICE SILENT ON DEATH OF SOLON

Physician Called When Attendants Fail To Get Into Room

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Senator Medill McCormick, of Illinois, was found dead in his hotel apartment today under circumstances which lead physicians to disagree as to the cause of death. The doctors who made the first examination of the body issued a certificate giving internal hemorrhage as the cause of the death, but the coroner later held the senator had been a victim of heart disease.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Senator Medill McCormick, of Illinois, died here early today. The senator was found dead in his room at the Hamilton hotel at 10 o'clock.

Circumstances surrounding his death were not immediately available. His office declined to make any statement.

It was said at the hotel, however that his death was the immediate result of gastric hemorrhage.

Senator McCormick's death was discovered when Dr. Noble Barnes, who had been attending him, was called after hotel attendants found his rooms locked and could get no reply to requests for admission.

A few intimate friends were advised of the death but under a promise to say nothing about it immediately, in order that Mrs. McCormick might be appraised in Chicago. Hotel employees said they heard him moving about in his room as late as 5:30 o'clock this morning.

Formal announcement was made in the senate by his colleague, Senator McKimley and the senate immediately adjourned out of respect to his memory.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—News of the death of Senator Medill McCormick in Washington was so entirely unexpected that at the moment press wires were carrying news of his death, the senator's office here could not credit dispatches.

Mrs. McCormick had not received the news General Frank Dixon, the senator's personal representative here, said. Mrs. McCormick, who before her marriage was Ruth Hanna, daughter of Mark Hanna, was entirely unprepared for the shock of the news of her husband's death.

Navy Transport Yields Cargo Of Liquors In Raid

(Associated Press)

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 25.—Several hundred gallons of liquor were seized aboard the naval transport Beaufort when she docked here last night from the West Indies by a detachment of marines, under the direction of Captain Wilburt Smith, assistant commandant of the naval base here.

The liquor is said to have been found in state rooms of various officers ranging in rank from pay clerks to lieutenants. The order for the raid on the Beaufort was issued by Rear Admiral Roger Wells, commandant of the fifth naval district who is said to have received information of the liquor being aboard the boat from custom officials here.

While the Beaufort was being searched all telephones from the naval base were kept under surveillance and the gates guarded. Several automobiles were seized and found to contain liquor.

The Beaufort operates on regular schedule between Norfolk and West Indies and carries passengers.

FARM LEGISLATION ON PRIORITY LIST

Steering Committee To Seek Action Before Adjournment

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Under a re-arrangement of the senate program for the remaining week of the session, legislation embodying the principal recommendations of the president's agricultural conference, the Capper-Haughen co-operative marketing bill—has been given preferred status on a priority list of less than a dozen measures.

Decision to place the co-operative bill behind the general omnibus pension measure, which has the right of way, after disposal of the pending banking legislation, was reached yesterday by the republican steering committee.

The action was taken after Senator Borah, republican of Idaho, who characterized the Capper-Haughen bill a make shift had again demanded an extra session of congress to consider a comprehensive program of farm aid. The farm bill was placed on the list where action on the legislation by the house could be awaited, leaders explained, with the idea of expediting action by substituting the house measure for that pending in the senate.

Chief of police Hendrix made the arrests.

BORGUM CONTRACT CANCELLED TODAY

New Sculptor Will Be Chosen for Carving On Memorial

(Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Feb. 25.—Gutzon Borgum's contract with the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial Association was cancelled by formal resolution of the Association's executive committee, at a meeting here today.

President Hollins N. Randolph was instructed to appoint a sub-committee to select another sculptor to carry on the work of carving on the side of the mountain a group of equestrian figures, representing leaders of the confederate forces.

Action was taken by the committee after an attorney had presented Mr. Borgum's side of the controversy. It was announced the committee was unanimous in its decision to cancel the contract.

At the same meeting the committee passed a resolution that Lester P. Barlow, of Cleveland, had no authority to represent the association in any capacity. Mr. Barlow recently announced his intention of holding a meeting in Cleveland March 3 for the purpose of raising funds jointly for the Stone Mountain Memorial in Georgia and the Harney Peak memorial in South Dakota.

The Stone Mountain Confederate memorial project, when completed, is expected to show a group of Confederate leaders carved in gigantic proportions on the side of Stone Mountain, 16 miles from Atlanta.

DEMURRER IN BANK CASE SUSTAINED

Indictments Quashed by Kyle Today In Madison Court

(Associated Press)

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Feb. 25.—The cases of the superintendent of banks of Alabama, and his assistant in the liquidation of the bank of Madison in 1923, charged in circuit court of Madison county, with having received deposits for the bank immediately prior to its failure, went off the docket today when Judge O. Kyle sustained demurrers to the indictments returned by the grand jury and ordered them quashed.

The defendants were held under bond to await further action by the grand jury.

The demurrers to the indictment were sustained by the court which ruled they failed to specify the defendants knew the bank was failing when the deposits were falling.

Premature Explosion of Dynamite Kills Eight at Quarry

MASSES OF ROCK ARE DISLODGED

Investigation Begun By Railroad Into Cause Of the Accident

(Associated Press)

LAUGTRY, Texas, Feb. 25.—A premature explosion of dynamite at a rock quarry, belonging to the Southern Pacific railroad here yesterday, caused the death of eight men and injuries to several others. So powerful was the blast that the bodies of some of the victims were torn to bits, while others were hurled hundreds of feet through the air.

Heavy masses of rock and earth were dislodged from the side of the hill where the men were working. Officials of the railroad have ordered an investigation to determine the cause of the blast, which, thus far, is a mystery.

The dead include John W. Harshaw of El Paso, division engineer for the railroad; P. A. Dorris, quarry foreman and C. D. Puddy of El Paso, driller. The others killed were Mexican laborers.

Mr. Harshaw had served the railroad as engineer for 15 years. He was considered expert at handling explosives and had made a special trip to Langtry to supervise some extensive blasting that was to be done.

REAL ESTATE IS LOOKING BETTER

Conditions Though Slow, Declared To Be Firm

In speaking of the present situation in lands, land transfers, sales and rentals, a local real estate man said this morning that he was of the belief that the conditions in Albany-Decatur at the present time were very bright although there seems to be very little buying and transferring at the present.

Naturally when speaking in reality terms the question of the disposition of the Shoals project was brought up. This dealer was of the opinion that regardless of the action of the governmental heads that local land values would remain on a par with a possible rise in price. It was further his belief that the building of the bridge at this point would be of greater value to the real-estate owners than any action at Washington would bring.

It is the opinion that the present year will see a great many movements locally in realty and that a building boom will be started before the summer months in view of the needed substantial buildings for renters.

He said that there were a number of unrented homes in Albany-Decatur at this time but that a great many were not in the condition that would warrant a renter taking them as living quarters.

TAXPAYERS ARE SLOW IN PAYMENTS

City To Advertise Properties for Sale In March

According to city clerk Henry Hartung the delinquent property tax payers are still slow in paying their assessments although the larger part of the taxes were due during last July. Taxes are now due on the recent street paving on Sixth avenue, Johnston and Jackson streets, 3rd, 4th, 5th 6th and 7th avenue west.

Clerk Hartung explained that the semi-annual bond interest is now due and that the payments must be made by the city. This is the primary reason that the properties will be advertised early in March.

The lists are now being prepared and city officials urged that property owners come in immediately and save the city the expense of having to borrow in order to pay the bond interest that is now due.

PEOPLE LIKELY TO HAVE OPPORTUNITY TO CAST VOTE SOON

Bridge Must Be Built and Will Be Built Is Slogan Now

ENTHUSIASM HIGH AT CONFERENCE

Committeemen Voice Belief Fund Will Be Raised Soon

"The bridge must be built and will be built" was the acclamation voiced last night at a meeting of committee members in the rooms of the Albany-Decatur chamber of commerce, when it was decided to have the executive committee name a committee of five to devise ways and means for a municipal bond issue for raising the necessary $100,000 fund.

From expressions voiced at last night's meeting, the bond issue plan is the most feasible and the support of every one of the members present was pledged to the issue.

It is expected that the committee will be organized today or tomorrow and will immediately get to work on the details in order that the city councils of Albany and Decatur may call an election of the earliest possible date, to give the citizens an opportunity to ratify the sale of the bonds.

It was pointed out that if the cities dispose of bonds for the $100,000 that in reality, the bridge may, after all, cost the municipalities but little. The interest rate on $100,000 is not expected to be more than six per cent, and probably only five and a half, making a maximum interest charge of only $6,000 annually. Belief is expressed that when the new state road bond issue is voted, that the money advanced here for the bridge will be returned by the state. If that occurs, Albany and Decatur as municipalities will have spent not more than the interest for a year or two, and citizens, as individuals, will have spent nothing.

If the state never returns the money, the bonds would be passed on to the next generation it was also pointed out, and in view of the development this section anticipates, probably would be easy of retirement in the next 15 or 20 years.

The meeting was called to order by Clyde Hendrix, presiding. John Patterson, of the executive committee, made a report in behalf of that committee, tracing the work which already had been accomplished. He introduced the following resolution:

Be it resolved by the citizens of Albany and Decatur in convention assembled that we regard the offer of the State Highway Commission to construct a bridge across the Tennessee River at some eligible point in Albany or Decatur, or on the dividing line between the same, extending into Limestone County, as a most desirable and inviting one, for the acceptance by this community, and which will insure to its betterment in every way, and that we will exhaust every effort within our power to devise and further ways and means to acquire it, in the most just, equitable and broad way of raising said funds for said purpose. We believe that the construction and maintenance of such a bridge will establish permanently the status of these municipalities as an outstanding landmark on one of the great highways connecting together, the two great sub-divisions of our country, the north and the south, and will add greatly and materially to the potentialities of our location as a great industrial center and bring multiplied wealth to our community, and the citizens and property holders therein, and will result in the universal advancement of our multitudinous advantages as a manufacturing and residential center.

YOUR HEALTH

Seek Epilepsy Cure From Its Underlying Cause

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

A FEW days ago I called to see some friends of mine, a young married couple. I found the wife pale, hollow-eyed and half dazed. She had just come out of a severe convulsion.

For the past two months there has been an attack at least once a week. For several years she has suffered this way every month or two.

What we called convulsions, or "fits," are known to the doctors as epilepsy. This is one of the trying and perplexing disturbances of the nervous system.

Just why these attacks come is a mystery. There are many exciting causes, but underlying them is some peculiar irritability of the nervous system. This must be watched and corrected before a permanent cure can be effected.

Many theories have been put forward to explain epilepsy. One of the most fascinating is that it results from changes in the nervous system due to chronic poisoning.

For instance, let us assume there is an old-standing intestinal trouble. Gradually the normal ridge-like structure of the intestinal canal is destroyed by infection and inflammation. In consequence the body waste is not disposed of as it should be.

What is worse than this, the lining of the intestines becomes a pus producing region. You can see what happens after that. Every day and every hour there is absorption of this pus or of the poisons generated by germ action in the intestines. Little by little, the delicate nervous system weakens under the constant bombardment.

A terrific convulsion is nature's protest against the condition. Of course this is a more or less hypothetical analysis of what happens in epilepsy and the assignment of this particular cause is theoretical.

Pus infected tonsils or infected teeth might produce similar effects. So with pus infections of any part or organs of the body.

It is natural to ask why all persons with intestinal, tonsillar or dental infections do not have epilepsy. The answer is easy. It is for the same reason that one man can walk all day, while his neighbor is tired out in an hour. The powers of endurance, of resistance, are much greater in some persons than in others. Some are born with a delicate nervous system. When that is the case, the nerve cells do not resist poisoning or disease as normal nerve cells do.

Eye-strain, worry, overwork, loss of sleep—anything, indeed, which drains vitality, may be a factor in producing the epileptic attacks. Anything which lowers resistance must be given attention.

The hope of cure of epilepsy depends on the discovery of the underlying cause. The exciting things, any one of which may precipitate an attack, are easily found. But unless the remote causes of ill health are gotten rid of, discouragement is certain.

By all means have a very thorough and general examination made. This may reveal the fundamental cause.

Dr. Copeland will answer for readers of this paper questions on medicine, hygiene and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. Where the subject of a letter is such that it cannot be published in this column, Dr. Copeland will, when the question is a proper one, write you personally at a self-addressed, stamped envelope to be enclosed. Herewith is solution to Puzzle No. 111:

How to Solve Puzzle.

The best way to solve this cross-word puzzle is to run over the list of horizontal and vertical words in search of evident or "easy" words. If horizontal, the word you are looking for must extend crosswise from the number to the first shaded stop on the right; if vertical, it must extend downward from the number to the first shaded stop below. When finished, the words should read equally well crosswise and downward.

tial center, of a locality blessed by nature with advantages of soil, climate and healthfulness and the third largest water way in the United States which we are assured will soon be open to navigation of the largest water transportation facilities from the mountains of Eastern Tennessee, through the rich agricultural valley of Alabama, to the Gulf of Mexico.

Be it further resolved that the slogan of each member of this meeting is, and will be, "The bridge must be built, the bridge will be built."

He moved the adoption of the resolutions, which motion was seconded by Dr. J. L. Gunter, Judge William E. Skeggs and Judge John C. Eyster spoke briefly on the resolution and it was then adopted unanimously.

Mr. Patterson then read another resolution as follows:

Whereas, this meeting of the citizens of Albany and Decatur has been called for the purpose of considering a proposition made by the state highway commission to construct a bridge across the Tennessee River from some eligible point in Albany or Decatur, on the dividing line thereof, to an eligible location in Limestone County across said river; and to provide the necessary funds for the construction of the same in the event they were assured of a deposit of $100,000 subject to the check of said state highway commission therefor by the citizens of Albany and Decatur, or any other means or source from which said amount may be derived for said purpose; and

Whereas, this assembly is gathered for the purpose of discussing the ways and means of raising said funds as required by the said state highway commission, as a condition precedent to its constructing said bridge:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that a committee of five be selected, within the next three days, by the executive committee of the bridge project, to wit: W. W. Fussell, John Patterson and W. R. Spight to devise ways and means to be submitted to the respective councils of the cities of Albany and Decatur, together with their recommendation of raising said funds for the purpose of obtaining the aid of the State Highway Commission:

Be it further resolved that if, in the judgment of said committee so to be selected by said executive committee, the most feasible way of raising said funds is by the issuance of a series of bonds to the amount of $100,000 by the said municipalities of Albany and Decatur then it is the sense of this meeting that said means be adopted for the raising of said funds.

Be it further resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that the most feasible and equitable way of raising said funds for said purpose, would be the issuance by the respective municipalities of bonds as above indicated, and that the proportionate amount of bonds to be issued by each of said municipalities, the aggregate to be $100,000 shall be determined by joint meeting of the respective mayors and councils of Albany and Decatur.

He moved the adoption of the resolution and the motion was seconded by Judge Skeggs.

Judge Eyster asked for a full expression from the meeting, declaring the law permitted aid in the erection of bridges by municipalities.

A general discussion then ensued on the phraseology of the resolution by Judge Skeggs, Chairman Hendrix, Judge Eyster, John Patterson, S. A. Lynne and Judge L. P. Troup. The resolution then was adopted unanimously.

Dr. J. L. Gunter declared he is very much in favor of the plan and promised to support it.

E. C. Payne told of a meeting held many years ago in Chattanooga, when Secretary Dowling of the organization seeking the canalization of Muscle Shoals, said "hope deferred makes the heart sick," and added that "we are sick down here." In his opinion the visit here of President Mapother and the bridge project are two of the greatest events in local civic history in 30 years.

F. G. Cook stated he favored the building of the bridge and believes the course to be pursued is the right one. Posterity will reap the benefits of the bridge, he declared.

B. L. Malone pointed out that the bridge probably will cost close to half a million dollars. Of this amount only $100,000 is asked from the citizens of this section, the state providing the remainder. Of the total cost, fully half of the fund expended will be spent here, he said, being equal to several small industries. He called attention to the action taken by a little Florida town of 1500 people, where he has visited recently. The town would not be on the Dixie highway unless they built a bridge. They built it. Build the bridge now, or be delayed perhaps ten years, he suggested.

W. R. Spight pledged his full support, declaring the present is "the opportunity of our lives."

G. O. Chenault agreed that if a bond issue plan to meet all legal requirements can be evolved "it is the way to do it." Mr. Chenault, Judge Eyster and Mr. Lynne discussed several of the legal phases of the question.

On a vote on the resolution it was adopted unanimously.

Judge Troup moved that those present give to the executive committee the right to sign their names to the plan when it is presented to the councils. The motion was seconded by E. W. Strother and passed unanimously.

The names are: Thomas A. Bowles, W. M. Bailey, G. O. Chenault, W. M. Chenault, J. W. Clopton, Dr. J. L. Gunter, J. C. Eyster, Clyde Hendrix, A. L. Jolly, John W. Knight, S. A. Lynne, B. L. Malone, C. W. Matthews, C. D. Patterson, W. E. Roper, Wm E Skegg, W. E. Sivley, F. F. Tidwell, Judge L. P. Troup, J. W. Wyker, W. R. Spight, W. W. Fussell, John Patterson, E. W. Strother, Frank G. Cook and E. C. Payne.

On motion of J. W. Clopton, seconded by Mr. Cook, a vote of thanks was extended the executive committee for their work.

Policeman Hill, of the Decatur force, rescued a man at the Decatur station this morning. A train was pulling in when the aged man stepped on the track. He seemed deaf and did not hear the approaching locomotive. The officer grabbed him off the track just as the engine thundered by.

Plans are underway to add 50 feet to the Decatur station, the addition to be occupied by the Southern express company.

The members of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a Goodfellowship banquet at the Echols hotel last night.

A DAILY PRAYER.—When for a time the clouds of doubt disappear and our souls are filled with singing may Thou enable us to regard such blessed experiences as prophetic of heaven.

General Mitchell probably thinks peace is the same thing Sherman says war was.

What a fright! We read in The Anniston Star a headline: "Taxing bobbed heads in Bath Need Not Cause Alarm in This Country." Then we discover the reference is to Bath, England.

THE DEMOCRATIC SENATORS DID NOT STAND UP FOR SHOALS LEGISLATION

The report of the vote taken on the motion to override President Cummins' decision, holding the Underwood Muscle Shoals bill is out of order, reveals the fact that it was the democratic party, combining with farmer-labor elements, which gave the Norris element the necessary votes to send the measure back to conference.

Isn't it a shame that we tried and true democrats cannot get out and give the blanket-blank republicans a good tongue lashing for sending the bill to conference and therefore endangering the legislation at this session? This is one time the republicans were not guilty of legislating against a Southern measure. The republican senators divided equally on the question, but two more democrats voted to sustain the chair than voted to override. The republicans gave the democrats an opportunity, but the democrats "muffed" the chance.

THE DAILY SCORES MANY "BEATS" IN NEWS DURING THE PAST TWO WEEKS

The Daily, it is hoped, will be pardoned for a short reference to the many "beats" in important news of the day which it has been the privilege of this newspaper to give to its reader lately, hours ahead of any other newspaper.

It will be recalled that The Daily was first with news of the finding of the body of Floyd Collins, entombed Kentucky cave explorer. The finding was made at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon. News of the discovery was flashed immediately to The Daily by the Associated Press and a short time later the story was given to readers of this newspaper, many hours ahead of any competitor.

A few days afterward, President Cummins, in the senate, upheld the point of order raised by Senator Norris, against the Underwood bill conference report. Again The Daily was in advance of all competition and published the story here far ahead of other newspapers.

In the same issue was carried a bulletin regarding the mine disaster at Sullivan. It was a clean "scoop" on the afternoon papers. The morning papers brought the story in more detail, but the "edge" had been taken off of the story for them by the first news of the disaster published in The Daily THE AFTERNOON BEFORE.

Monday the senate voted to uphold the Cummins decision, and once more The Daily gave the news first.

These things are called to the attention of readers of this newspaper in this section, not because The Daily believes it is doing anything more than it should do, but merely to remind our citizens that The Daily receives the service of the Associated Press, the greatest news gathering organization in the world. The Associated Press is always on the job when big news is breaking. The latter of time permits The Daily to take these Associated Press dispatches and beat competition, because railroad schedules eat up valuable hours for out-of-town newspapers.

YOUR INCOME TAX

The revenue act of 1924 provided more liberally for deductions for contributions than preceding acts. In computing net income the individual taxpayer may deduct from gross income contributions or gifts made during the year 1924 to or for the use of the United States, any State or Territory, or any political subdivision thereof (city, town, county, or village) or the District of Columbia, "for exclusively public purposes." A gift of real estate to a city to be maintained perpetually as a park is an allowable deduction. Contributions by individuals to a fund raised for the purpose of inducing an industrial plant to locate in their city would not be an allowable deduction.

Other allowable deductions are for contributions to any corporation or trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, but only if no part of the net earnings of which inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. The 1924 act provides also for deductions for contributions to the special fund for vocational rehabilitation and a new provision—"posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations if organized within the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual." Another new provision is the deduction for contributions to a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions are used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

Deductible contributions have been construed to mean money or property. The value of services to the organizations mentioned is not an allowable deduction.

COLONEL MOORMAN WILL BE GLAD TO EXPLAIN WORK OF CITIZENS CAMPS

Colonel T. S. Moorman, of the United States army, announced in The Daily Tuesday that he expected to spend a day or two in this community next week, explaining to boys who may be interested in the citizens' military camps, and to parents of boys who might become applicants for the camps, just what the work and objects of these camps really are.

Colonel Moorman is an affable gentleman, well versed in the citizens' military training school idea. He will be more than glad of an opportunity to meet the youngsters, their parents, or both, and give them first hand information regarding the camps.

The four camps will open in the southeastern section of the United States on July 2. These camps will be located at Fort Bragg, North Carolina; Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia; Camp McClellan, Alabama; and Fort Barrancas, Florida. It is pointed out, however, that those boys who are enrolling in the camps for the first time from here must be sent to Camp McClellan. Boys who have previous enrollments to their credit may have the option as to which camp they desire to be sent, bearing in mind that different branches of the service will be taught at the different camps.

The camp idea, which has been approved by Presidents Roosevelt, Wilson, Harding and Coolidge, together with many church leaders, civic leaders and business leaders, has for its purpose: To assemble ambitious young Americans for 30 days training, annually, in citizenship—military drill—self reliance—initiative—good fellowship and leadership, moral and spiritual conduct—how to work hard and efficiently; how to play the game of life and win.

The booklet, now being distributed, says of the camp plan:

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION
Vaccination and Inoculation

The War Department requires preliminary physical examination for all students who are to attend the Citizen's Military Training Camps before their applications can be accepted. War Department regulations also require that before a candidate goes to Camp he be inoculated against typhoid and para-typhoid fever and that he be vaccinated against smallpox. Applicants who have attended a previous camp or who have been inoculated or vaccinated within three years prior to the opening of the camp will not be required to undergo this immunization, but must be physically examined. All certificates showing recent immunization signed by the doctor who administered the vaccine or serum must accompany the application blank. Upon receipt of request for application blanks, applicants will be furnished a list of the places where they can be examined, vaccinated and inoculated free.

TRANSPORTATION

Accepted candidates may either pay their own way to camp and, upon arrival, be reimbursed immediately by the Finance Officer at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile traveled coming to camp by the shortest usually traveled route (this method is preferable) or, if they will not have sufficient funds personally to cover this expense, they can state in their application that they desire government transportation, in which case the Corps Area Quartermaster will send them a United States government transportation request. This transportation request presented at the local ticket office in your home town, will be exchanged for a ticket, and when you arrive at camp you will be paid at the rate of $3.00 per day, or fraction of a day, to cover the cost of meals, for which you must have receipts. As stated the "Pay Your Own Way" scheme is much better.

IMPORTANT: If you elect to receive a transportation request and later decide not to go to camp, you must remember that this request represents a charge against United States public funds, therefore it must be returned without delay, and at the very latest by July 10th, to the C. M. T. C. Officer, Red Rock Building, Atlanta, Ga., for cancellation.WHAT AN OFFER !!!

The government is offering one of the greatest gratuitous opportunities to young men that has ever been offered by this or any other government. With your expenses paid, and more than paid, from your doorstep to a well organized, well ordered training camp and all expenses paid there, and recreation and sports, manual training, military training and physical development of your body and mind, under expert Army Officers and Physical Directors, then transportation on return to your doorstep, it becomes an opportunity that no young man should miss and that every parent should take advantage of. The moral, social and religious influences of these camps are kept at the very highest standards; discipline is administered and taught in such a manner that it is not repulsive; every officer is picked with the greatest care and he must be a man who can control young men without harsh methods and can develop in the company of these young men a spirit of absolute trust and confidence.

ADVICE TO GIRLS

By ANNIE LAURIE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

1—How can a girl be in love and not let the man know?

2—Can a girl be too nice to a man?

3—Is it right for a girl to leave a party with her escort and go riding and then come back?

A BLONDIE:

1—If a girl is in love and her love is returned there is no reason why she should not let the man know how she feels. If it is not reciprocated, a little self-restraint and dignity in all that is necessary.

2—A girl should always be courteous and cordial to all her friends, but this does not mean that she should make a "doormat" of herself.

3—No, it is not right for a girl to leave a party, go out riding and then return. It is an insult to her hostess and is likely to start gossip and scandal about herself.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a married woman in my twenties and I would like to know whether it is wrong to accept a gift from an old friend on Christmas.

MARYLAND:

You shouldn't accept the gift, even though it is a Christmas present, unless your husband approves. After all, my dear, how would you feel if your husband were to receive presents from women friends?

Annie Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. Letters to Miss Laurie should be addressed to her in care of this office.

BETTER SPEECH WEEK PROVES OF GREAT INTEREST LOCALLY

Reports from the school of the cities indicate that "Better Speech Week" February 23-27, has proved thus far to be of great interest to the students who have entered into the observance with the real intent of improving their speech and influencing the speech of others.

Below is a third of the series from the schools of the cities. The articles are written by students in the schools and submitted. The more impressive of the series is being carried in the press from day to day.

BETTER SPEECH WEEK
By Frances Watkins

The week of February 23-27 has been designated to be observed over the State of Alabama as Better Speech Week. Before going any further, let us stop and think: "What is Better Speech Week?" This is a very important question and should be studied very carefully and attentively, since it is the use of correct English that makes us what we are. Our business social and educational standing depend directly on our use of correct English.

Better Speech Week is set aside by the State in which we are to attempt to improve our speech. By this we mean to eliminate all slang; to make and establish the correct use of words such as "seen," "saw," "isn't," etc., which are often incorrectly used; to avoid the use of all technical terms and words that none but a college professor can understand. Try to speak so as to go right to the point and not lose sight of the subject.

Now let us consider some of the causes of bad English and try to apply a remedy for them if possible. I think most of the incorrect English is originated in the homes. Our parents allow us to use it at home and when we start to school it is a difficult task for the teacher to teach us any better. If we insist on using it while we are young, what else could be expected of us when we are older but to use the same old incorrect expressions? Another cause or source of incorrect English is the poorer classes of people who live in the slums of the larger cities and who never have a chance to get an education, and who consequently do not know how to speak correct English. They drift on and on in their same every day life and never know any better.

A remedy for these is to teach the children at home what good English is and how to use it. The government could and ought to appropriate enough money to build schools and furnish teachers in the slum district and teach the children how to speak our language correctly. Usually little children remember anything like that, if they hear it just once, the result would be that they would soon teach their parents the correct use of English.

A good example of the result of using incorrect English is a little story that is often told in connection with this subject. Two men went into an office of a large business concern seeking a position as bookkeeper. The first one, whose name we shall call Mr. Bad English, goes in and applies for the job. Although Mr. Bad English may be a very smart man in mathematics, he uses such frightful language! He is immediately turned down. Next in line is a very handsome, well-dressed, fine, cultured young man whose name is Mr. Good English. The manager of the business concern, upon hearing him speak

Men and Women in News SpotlightAbove: J. T. LESLIE ARNOLD & GANNA WALSKA
Below: OSBORNE WOOD & JOB E. HEDGES

Ganna Walska, wife of Harold F. McCormick, multi-millionaire Chicago "harvester king," has been refused permission by the Mayor of Nice, France, to reappear there in opera, on the grounds that she is "not an artist." Lieutenant Osborne C. Wood, son of Governor General Leonard Wood, of the Philippines, is in retirement in France and is reported to have spent most of the fortune he was credited with making in Wall Street. Denying reports that he was engaged to Priscilla Dean, film actress, Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, world flier, revealed that he had been secretly married to Miss Mildred Avery, a nurse, of New York City, in August, 1917, adding that they separated on their wedding day and had seen each other only once since. Job E. Hedges, famous New York attorney and humorist, dropped dead in Atlantic City, N. J., where he and his wife were spending a few days.

Over a period of yearsTHE Ford car has remained the undisputed leader for value in the motoring world.

There are certain fundamental reasons why this is true. It is a car, properly designed and staunchly constructed, having a motor which has proved itself reliable, long-lived and economical.

It is adequately serviced by an organization reaching to every community and neighborhood.

These combine to give the Ford car the highest resale value in proportion to list price.

And as production volume of the Ford has grown the purchase price has been steadily reduced.

YOU PAY FOR IT ANYWAY—GET IT NOW

When did you first begin to consider taking some life insurance, several years ago perhaps? Maybe you are still putting it off, waiting for a more favorable time in which to buy.

When you do take this insurance you will have to pay for all the years in which you have had no protection whatsoever.

YOU PAY FOR IT ANYWAY

Every man ought to buy insurance now, if he waits five or ten years those premiums all have to be paid just the same, and it shows up in the difference in rates. Now, since you will have to pay for it anyway, why deprive your family of the security they must feel when they know you are adequately insured.

SPORTSHartselle Comes to Albany High Court for Game with Y. M. C. A. Thursday at 7:30

The Hartselle representatives who have once before met defeat at the hands of the Y. M. C. A. cagers during the season will appear in the role of invader on Thursday night at the local court when they meet the Y clan at 7:30 o'clock.

When the Y team journeyed to Hartselle they ran into some stiff opposition but managed to carry away a decision after a hard fight. That same team is to face the local lads tomorrow night and Captain Ellison is preparing his charges carefully to prevent any slip in the plan of hostilities.

The Y. M. C. A. team will possibly be made up of Roper and Johnson or Holloman at the forwards, Hurst at center, and Ellison, Roper, Shelton, Gustin and Braswell to pick from for the guard positions.

This is one of the last home games of the season and it is expected that the fans will avail themselves of the opportunity.

The Alabama high school athletic association has entered ten teams for the state tournament thus far with two districts yet to decide who is to be sent. The eighth district is represented by Snead Seminary and Madison County. This pair of fighting fives is picked as the strongest in this section and looking a little beyond it seems that Snead is looked upon as one of the most formidable combinations in the entire state.

Of course it is to be regretted that local folks failed to enter the tournament, but there is another year coming and according to coaches of both high schools indications are that better teams will represent the cities in the battles of a campaign to be fought in 1926.

Another college in southern circles enters a bid for fame. Ole Miss looks forward to the first real football season in her history. Homer Hazel giant 235 Rutgers star in football, baseball, track basketball and tennis as well as dragging down the scholastic honors of his class yesterday began workouts with some 70 odd candidates at the University of Mississippi. The new coach expressed himself as being highly pleased with the initial turnout and was of the belief that a new era was in sight for the University of Mississippi in sport circles.

Hazel is a man who might be termed one of the chosen few in the ranks of athletes. A five letter man, a good student with a business ability, an executive. Such a man cannot be termed an athlete alone. He is the type that even college professors are forced to admire when other athletes are looked upon as non-essential. A man of this calibre is an example to other students, or rather college attendants who desire to enter athletics.

Grizzled college Ph. D's can always point to him and say there is a man who is a combination of everything that is beneficial to the human race. True, Hazel got a little more than his share of the talents, but he is the answer to the problem of many a youth who enters the portals of some state university in search of an education both mental and physical. Hazel has answered the question in the affirmative that a man can be a student and an athlete at the same time.

two points Tuesday night in bowling at the Y. M. C. A. and still hold first place in present tournament, with but one more week to go to decide the winner. However, the Decoras, Business Men and Railroaders teams also stand a mighty good chance to win the honor of champions. Next week will see several close matches.

Dr. Baugh featured high total pinning for last night, while David Jones pulled down the high single game. Their scores are given below.

Nearly A $1,000,000 To Take Out A Tunnel

TUNNELS are always objectionable and frequently cause delays in running schedules. Yet, because of various reasons—extra expense, right of way, and greater physical obstacles—tunnels have been constructed by all great trunk lines.

In line with its policy of constantly striving for improvement to its service by bettering its road conditions, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad is at present engaged in the gigantic undertaking involving the expenditure of $760,000.00 in constructing "fills" to eliminate bridges and ultimately to remove a tunnel at Muldraugh's Hill, just South of Louisville.

For nearly a year the work of filling in two great gorges totaling 1,400 feet in width and 90 feet in depth, has been going on. The work will not be completed for another twelve months, but when the track is laid over this hill it will cut off a considerable amount of time, and will materially facilitate operations and improve the service to the public.

When you are impressed with statements that the railroads are earning huge dividends, ask for authoritative information on operating costs and investments in necessary improvements.

Brings Youth To Old Folks

One of Tanlac's greatest blessings is the new life and vigor it brings to old folks. Men and women up in the seventies and eighties are writing to us every day to thank us for Tanlac's wondrous benefits.

Tanlac is a natural tonic. It drives poisons from the blood, stirs up the lazy liver and puts digestive organs in working order.

Made after the famous Tanlac formula from roots, barks and rare herbs it is nature's own tonic and buldizer—harmless to man or child.

If your body is weakened and run-down, if you lack ambition, can't eat or sleep, you'll be delighted with Tanlac's quick results.

YOU PAY FOR IT ANYWAY—GET IT NOW

When did you first begin to consider taking some life insurance, several years ago perhaps? Maybe you are still putting it off, waiting for a more favorable time in which to buy.

When you do take this insurance you will have to pay for all the years in which you have had no protection whatsoever.

YOU PAY FOR IT ANYWAY

Every man ought to buy insurance now, if he waits five or ten years those premiums all have to be paid just the same, and it shows up in the difference in rates. Now, since you will have to pay for it anyway, why deprive your family of the security they must feel when they know you are adequately insured.

TILLIE THE TOILERSPORTS*Hartselle Comes to Albany High Court for Game with Y. M. C. A. Thursday at 7:30

The Hartselle representatives who have once before met defeat at the hands of the Y. M. C. A. cagers during the season will appear in the role of invader on Thursday night at the local court when they meet the Y. M. C. A. team at 7:30 o'clock.

When the Y team journeyed to Hartselle they ran into some stiff opposition but managed to carry away a decision after a hard fight. That same team is to face the local lads tomorrow night and Captain Ellison is preparing his charges carefully to prevent any slip in the plan of hostilities.

The Y. M. C. A. team will possibly be made up of Roper and Johnson or Holloman at the forwards, Hurst at center, and Ellison, Roper, Shelton, Gustin and Braswell to pick from for the guard positions.

This is one of the last home games of the season and it is expected that the fans will avail themselves of the opportunity.

The Alabama high school athletic association has entered ten teams for the state tournament thus far with two districts yet to decide who is to be sent. The eighth district is represented by Snead Seminary and Madison County. This pair of fighting fives is picked as the strongest in this section and looking a little beyond it seems that Snead is looked upon as one of the most formidable combinations in the entire state.

Of course it is to be regretted that local folks failed to enter the tournament, but there is another year coming and according to coaches of both high schools indications are that better teams will represent the cities in the battles of a campaign to be fought in 1926.

Another college in southern circles enters a bid for fame. Ole Miss looks forward to the first real football season in her history. Homer Hazel giant 235 Rutgers star in football, baseball, track basketball and tennis as well as dragging down the scholastic honors of his class yesterday began workouts with some 70 odd candidates at the University of Mississippi. The new coach expressed himself as being highly pleased with the initial turnout and was of the belief that a new era was in sight for the University of Mississippi in sport circles.

Hazel is a man who might be termed one of the chosen few in the ranks of athletes. A five letter man, a good student with a business ability, an executive. Such a man cannot be termed an athlete alone. He is the type that even college professors are forced to admire when other athletes are looked upon as non-essential. A man of this calibre is an example to other students, or rather college attendants who desire to enter athletics. Grizzled college Ph. D's can always point to him and say there is a man who is a combination of everything that is beneficial to the human race. True, Hazel got a little more than his share of the talents, but he is the answer to the problem of many a youth who enters the portals of some state university in search of an education both mental and physical. Hazel has answered the question in the affirmative that a man can be a student and an athlete at the same time.

Don't get it into your head that Spain is going to give up bull fighting, they are not, but lately they have been giving quite a bit of their Spanish ardor to watching and playing football and soccer. Spain is under the impression that the Argentines and Urugayan teams that have been recent visitors to the country are the champions of the world. Let us hope that the "Four Horsemen" or Red Grange get a chance to go over and see them.

two points Tuesday night in bowling at the Y. M. C. A. and still hold first place in present tournament, with but one more week to go to decide the winner. However, the Decoras, Business Men and Railroaders teams also stand a mighty good chance to win the honor of champions. Next week will see several close matches.

Nearly A $1,000,000 To Take Out A Tunnel

TUNNELS are always objectionable and frequently cause delays in running schedules. Yet, because of various reasons—extra expense, right of way, and greater physical obstacles—tunnels have been constructed by all great trunk lines.

In line with its policy of constantly striving for improvement to its service by bettering its road conditions, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad is at present engaged in the gigantic undertaking involving the expenditure of $760,000.00 in constructing "fills" to eliminate bridges and ultimately to remove a tunnel at Muldraugh's Hill, just South of Louisville.

For nearly a year the work of filling in two great gorges totaling 1,400 feet in width and 90 feet in depth, has been going on. The work will not be completed for another twelve months, but when the track is laid over this hill it will cut off a considerable amount of time, and will materially facilitate operations and improve the service to the public.

When you are impressed with statements that the railroads are earning huge dividends, ask for authoritative information on operating costs and investments in necessary improvements.

Moulton News

F. C. Smith, proprietor of the Moulton Drug Co., found a small show window broken open Monday morning when he went to his place of business and about a dozen flash lights missing. The store has a small window display between the door and the wall where flashlights have been on display, the thief evidently attempted to cut out the window opening with a dull knife and found the task too slow, since the broken glass showed where he used his foot. One flash light was left in a corner of the apartment.

J. W. Crow a leading and influential citizen of the Red Hill community east of Moulton on the Albany-Moulton highway passed away Sunday afternoon after a long illness. Mr. Crow had spent practically all his life in the community of Red Hill. He leaves several relatives and many friends to mourn his death. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon and interment took place in the cemetery near. He was a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist church.

S. L. Morrow, county agent, and J. C. Lowry, district agricultural club agent were quite successful in their enrollment of club members among boys and girls last week. In the five schools visited a total of above eighty members were secured, the largest number from any one school was enrolled at Mount Hope which is one of the most promising portions of Lawrence county. The agent plans to have not over five or six clubs in the county as he feels that a concentration of efforts will result in greater good to the agricultural interests.

The third Wednesday in each month has been designated by S. L. Morrow, county agent, as special farm day in Lawrence county. The meetings are held at Moulton and at Courtland, alternating between the two places. K. G. Baker marketing agent from Auburn attended the meeting in Moulton Wednesday of last week; on the third Wednesday in March, L. T. Wells dairy specialist and C. A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds of the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist, Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga. (Adv.)
